Protecting Our Vulnerable Older Persons...

4th National Conference

Now
on
DVD!

The Elder Abuse Prevention Association hosted the 4th Annual National Conference on Elder Abuse on 2-3 October 2008 at Kimberley Gardens Function Centre at the Quest, East St.Kilda in Melbourne. This two-day event entitled "Giving a Voice to Those Who Are Silenced" attracted over 150 attendees from aged care, medical, legal, research, law enforcement, disability, academic, political, advocacy, multi-cultural, human rights, and private industry professionals from throughout Australia and New Zealand.

This "one of a kind" national conference featured some of the most talented professionals from around Australia and New Zealand speaking on elder abuse issues. "Giving a Voice to Those Who Are Silenced" highlights top initiatives and programs as well as "cutting edge" strategies in combating elder abuse in all settings.
